Where you at? Summer And Weekends

During the weekends and summers, Deerfield High School students are given time to have fun.

From Spirit Week to the Pep Rally

With the themed days leading up to the Pep Rally, the Starring Seniors, Jaws Juniors, Starstruck Sophomores, and Featuring Freshmen showed some Warrior Pride!

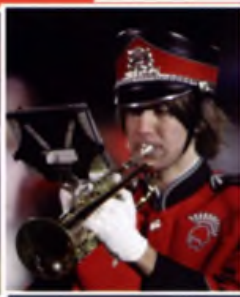

HOME COMING

GAME

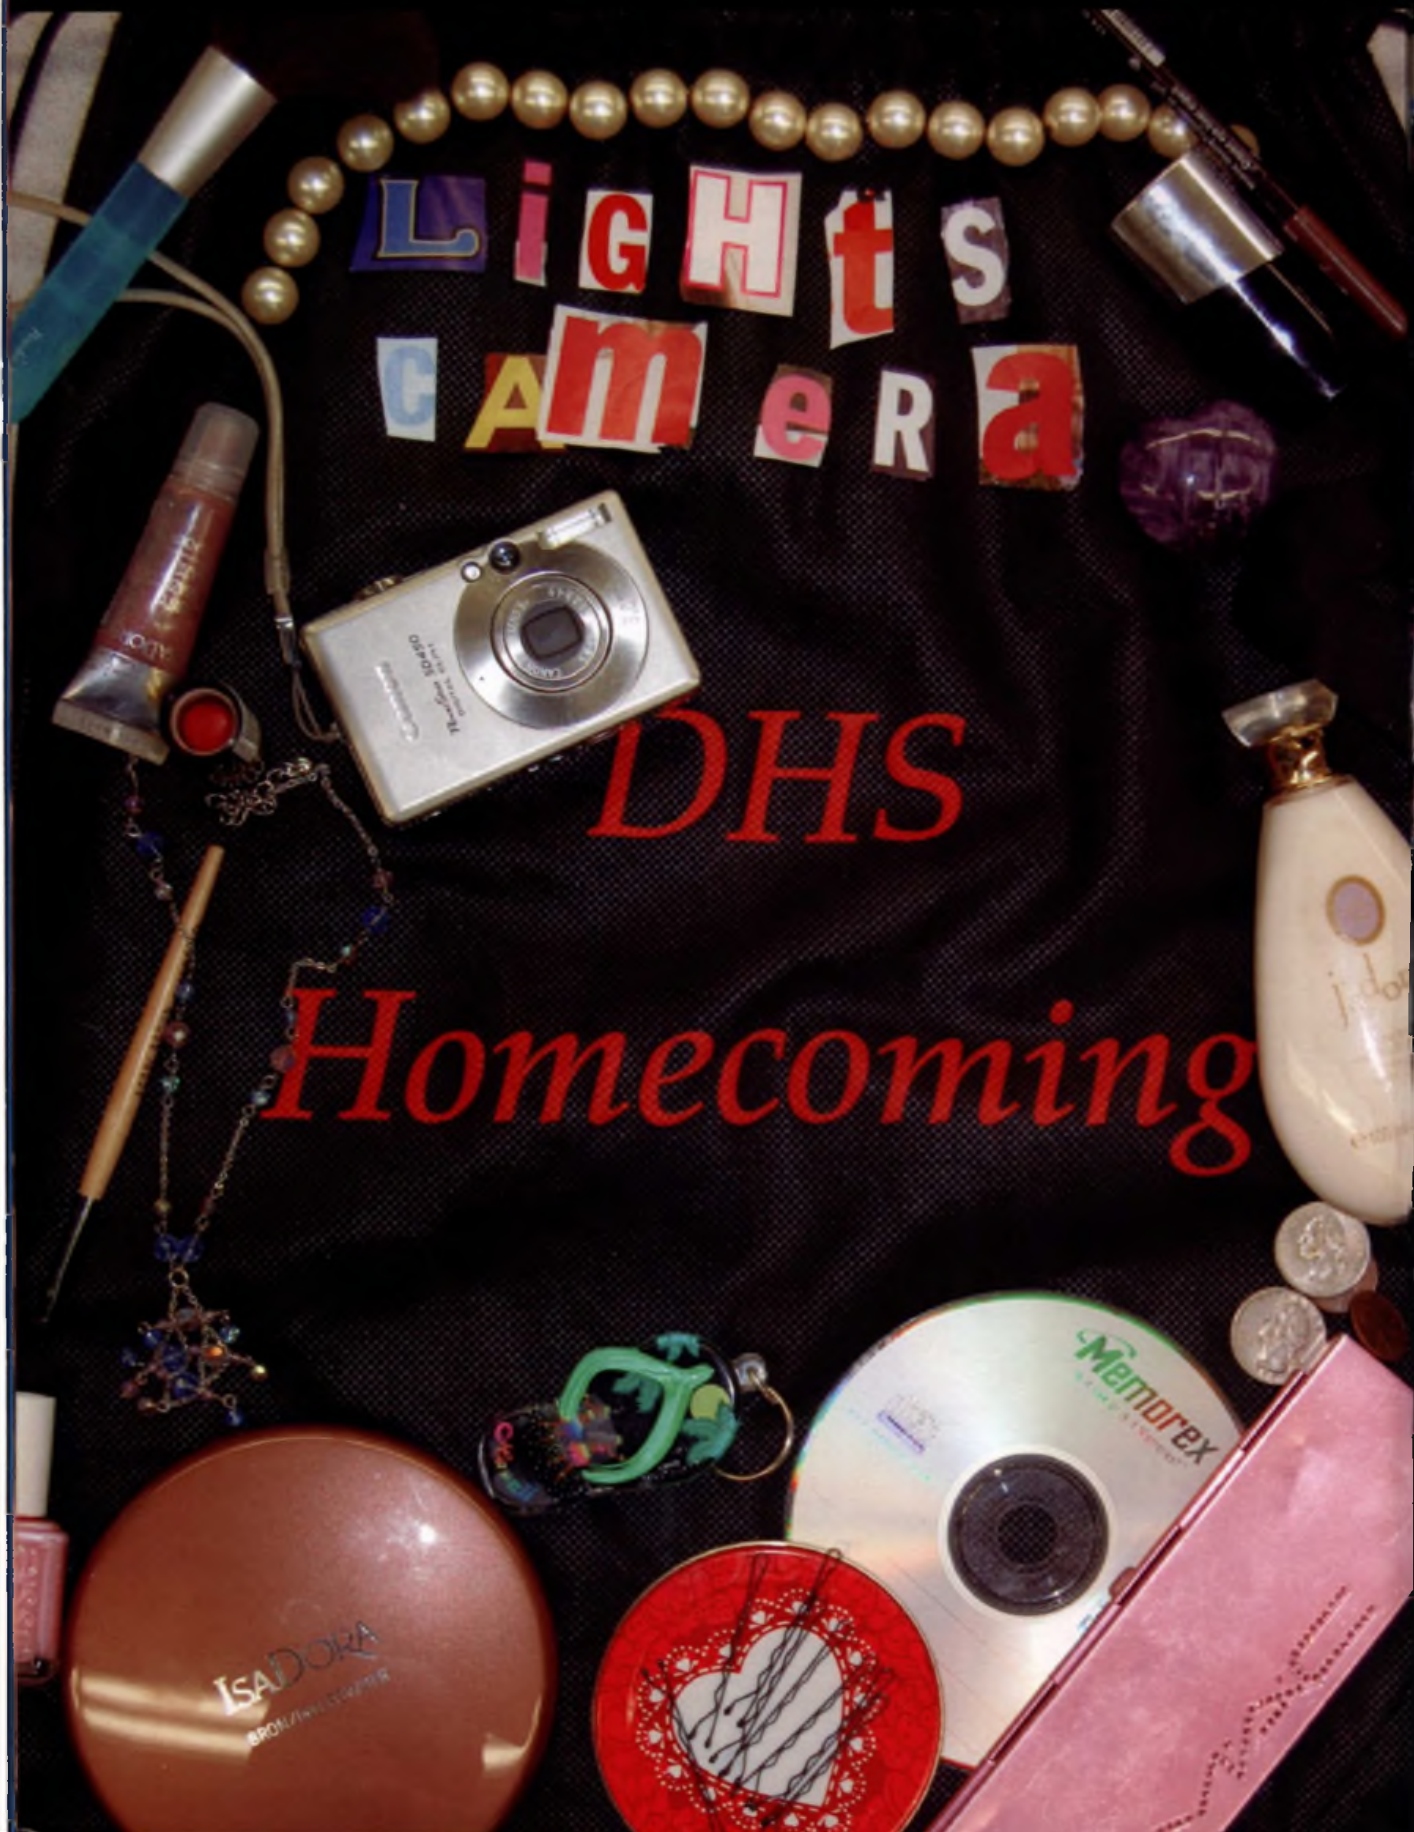

On Friday night October 13th, with fans filling the stands, our Deerfield Warriors hammered Maine West 42-7. In addition, halftime performances by Poms, Drill Team and Marching band encouraged the team to play harder!

"I want Candy"

This year, the theme for Turnabout was "I want Candy". GIMA chose the theme and it was a huge success. The gym was filled with colorful decorations, traditional food, and tons of SWEETS!

A cotton candy machine was even available. With everyone on a sugar high, the dance was even more fun!

Interesting: Bayan Edis

At 18, Bayan has accomplished more than most accomplish in a lifetime. After leaving an amazing legacy at DHS, being involved in many aspects of the theater program, he also gave a hilarious performance in Mr. DHS, playing the Digeridoo and answering the hilarious question, "what famous person do you think you look most like"? Bayan answered, Brad Pitt. But, Mr. DHS isn't the only generous thing Bayan has done for charity. Bayan now resides in Ethiopia, attempting to start a non-profit school and is teaching English to impoverished children. At his goodbye party, every different group of friend came giving him support. He is not only interesting person, but an amazing one.

"You only live once"

Alana's hair is indeed quite long: it reaches well below her waist when it's out of a braid, as she's never cut it in her life. Her mother refused to let her cut it when she was younger, convinced that it would make her "unique." The same goes for the clothes: she can often be seen wearing far too many skirts at the same time, and, fruth be told, she probably owns enough pairs of striped toe socks to last her a month or so. Alana's interest in art has stubbornly persisted since she was a kid, when — surprisingly enough — she also enjoyed drawing the monsters she found in her head. This has probably stemmed from a long-lasting and ever-present affection for Pokemon. Alana's plans for the future includes going to an art school, drawing more things, buying more toe socks, keeping in touch with my friends, and enjoying life as much as humanly possible.

~ Jesse Jackson

Category: Most Interesting Seniors, for $2000. Answer: This DHS Senior is perhaps most widely known for being on "Jeopardy!" though he also enjoys hiking in such varied locations as Mount Rainier, Zion, and Acadia National Parks. While not chilling with his friends, he competes in Mathletes, Scholastic Bowl, and WYSE. Once a runner and baseball player, his time has increasingly been eaten up by homework and activities. Some little known facts include his status as an Eagle Scout, the restoration of the Seth Gooder Barn, and the existence of a Lego town in his basement. He will always be a Warrior.

Interesting: Rachel Saltzman

Time. In high school there never seems to be enough of it. Just ask senior, Rachel Saltzman. When she's not performing with the Choraliers or rehearsing for the Dance Company show, you can find her volunteering with Student Council or planning the next big event. Yet despite her heavy schedule and even heavier backpack, Saltzman says her "high school experience has been nothing short of amazing." Of all her various interests, the recently named "Deerfield Idol" says that singing is her true passion. "There's nothing quite like performing," she says. "My dream is to one day share this gift with the world." Yet through it all, Saltzman hopes to be remembered for her kind heart and willingness to help others. As high school winds to a close, Saltzman only hopes that the success of her future will mirror the success she's had at DHS. "Time is precious," she says. "I want to enjoy every busy moment that the future has to offer."

"But of all these friends and lovers, there is no one, that compares with you"

Interesting: Jason Schechtman

Three words. Jason "Jaystone"

Schechtman. From breaking his leg twice, sophomore year to overpassing his handicap parking pass, thru g11 junior year. Jason is just an all-around fun guy. You may have seen him as a co-anchor on Warrior Waked, or heard him on his weekly Podcast. Always the energetic one, Jason was class yeller his Sophomore and Junior years and was MC for his Senior year pep rally. His Varsity soccer team Captain, he is known to Grop by random classrooms and just sit waiting to see if the teacher will notice. He would like everyone to know, teachers included, that he did not read one book his entire Senior year and still managed to get into Indiana University where he will be rooming with Degan Spreckman in the fall. "Be who you are, say what you feel, for those who mind don't matter, and those who matter don't mind". Doctor Suess

"Sparknotes helped me graduate"

Interesting: Noble Schermerhorn

Don't forget how important people are to each other. Too often we are moving so quickly through our lives that we don't think, ya know, to just kind of sit back and think, and think hard about all these people, ya know, all these different friends and family members, strangers, and how we play a role in each others' lives. Too often do we underestimate the value of another human being, and their effect on us. Even worse, too often do we underestimate our influence on other people. It's mind blowing, but so important. People need people and... I think that's the most important lesson highschool has taught me. Live life ya know, love people and live life. Orr's Poem To be alive puts it best: "To be alive: not just the carcass, but the spark. That's crudely put, but... If we're not supposed to dance, why all this music?"

Think about it. Peace, Noble

Interesting: Adam Heffez

He put my pants on one leg at a time. He loves it when his mother makes me Mickey Mouse pancakes, and he enjoys keeping it real with his friends. But seriously, one of Adam's greatest life aspirations is to be internationally-minded. He's tried hard at Deerfield to take classes, participate in extracurricular activities, and engage in independent study that will help him achieve his ambition. Adam hopes to speak as many languages as there are lunch periods on a cycle 56 day, travel to more countries than there are computers in the Library drop-in lab, and have produce more minutes of Warrior Wakeups than there are in a month's worth of homeroom periods... but without inspiration from everyone, Adam would not have learned to take on his dreams like a Warrior.

"I never think of the future - it comes soon enough."

Interesting: Danny Abosch

What are the odds of a Senior in high school writing a complete musical? Danny Abosch is just one of those people who amazes others with his never ending talents, every day. This Choralier president, who has been in the group since he was a Sophomore, has been the lead in many DHS theater shows and musicals and even co-founded the senior accapella group, "Caution". As State Composition contest 1st place winner, he is able to play piano by ear and deliver corny jokes at the same time. Danny has also been enrolled in the Interlochen Performing Arts Camp for the past 2 years and plans to major in music education at the University of Michigan. Danny has clearly left his mark at DHS and is sure to achieve so much more in the near future.

"Try to learn something about everything and everything about something."

Seniors 2007

The Class of 2007, walked inside one day, of a place called DHS, and didn't know their way.

Freshman year was scary, the seniors seemed so tall, but we knew that we would get there even if we were so small.

Sophomore year then followed, we wore the color green, and keys were handed over for we were driving and sixteen.

Junior year was stressful, we took the ACT, for college was getting closer and Seniors we would be.

We've reached the end of school, and the times that we have shared, will always be remembered because we always cared.

In a long distance race, you're given a lot of time to reside in your own mind, and it's really easy to get scared in the middle of the race, being tired or hot or out of breath. More often, though, people are afraid of pushing themselves, of achieving the next goal; they're afraid of becoming who they are, because the risk brings the threat of failure, and because they mistake failure for ineptitude. But I say, 'You can't be afraid. You've got to accept the fact that you CAN push yourself and you won't fail. You've got to accept who you are as a runner. You've got to accept the risks you'll need to take to succeed, and where they'll lead you.'

"Exect Board has really helped me make a conection to the school and I think it is a very worthwhile club."
-Kelly O'Connol

Executive Board is a group of students that do many things for DHS throughout the course of a year. We plan, organize, and decorate for Homecoming dances and hold many fundraisers including a Mahjong Tournament Night and pizza and doughnut sales. We also work concessions during some of our football and basketball home games. In the spring, the board plans Forever Young Prom, a dance for the senior citizens in our community, with Highland Park High school. Each year, Sophomore Executive Board continues to be a great success.

Deerprints is a student-run award-winning newspaper that works to keep students aware of issues within the school, as well as broader topics in the larger community. The paper is run by a total of seventeen editors which includes editor-in-chief Elena Stratigakes. These students are responsible for story selection, writing and editing, and also the layout and graphics for each section. As the voice of the student body, Deerprints has accomplished a great deal and has kept the student body aware of school news. In addition, Deerprints helps to further the ties between students and faculty.

"Makes No Difference Who You are When you Wish To Be a STAR!!" School Chest

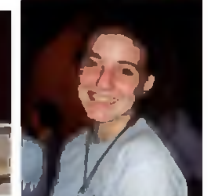

Student Council Co-chairs: Taylor Lustig and David Zwick

Below are many Student Council members showing their school chest spirit!

"In the hectic four weeks of School Chest '06, the entire school came together to raise a whopping $121,570.96 for SGT. Everywhere you turned, there was some fundraising activity going on; it never stopped! It's great to see everyone working towards a common cause to actually make a difference in our community and even in the world. Woohoo!" Taylor Lustig

Student Council, more commonly referred to as "STUCO," is an organization that connects the DHS students with the administration, allowing every student to have a voice. Not only does student council allow the DHS population to have a say in what goes on, but it also works hard in helping others. In this year's School Chest, student council raised over $122,000 for Special Gift's Theatre, an organization that helps young adults with a wide array of disabilities put on theatre productions to improve their mental, social, and cognitive skills. In addition to School Chest, there are many other ways that council reaches out to the community, including the homecoming parade, Lock-In, and Operation H.O.M.E (helping others means everything)! Stuco goes by the slogan "Nobody cares how much you know, until they know how much you care," and in following this, members take advantage of every opportunity to reach out to the community, because volunteering and helping others feels great.

Here are many of the student council members making the call to tell the representative from Special Gifts Theater our special gift to them; $121,570.96

We accomplished more than I expected--everything from raising more than $2,500 for Diabetes research, organizing a tutoring program at the library, and giving presents to needy families during the holidays."-Kathy Adamczyk

The National Honor Society is an organization sponsored by the National Association of Secondary Principals that fosters scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Students are admitted at the end of their junior year, and complete 12 hours of individual service as well as at least one group service project during their senior year. This year, the National Honor Society group service projects have included participating in the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Walk to Cure Diabetes, volunteering at the Cove School, reading to children at the Deerfield Public Library, raising money to buy gifts for inner city children during the holidays, and facilitating a Student Congress tournament. National Honor Society is the perfect outlet for leaders in the school to work together with friends to find innovative ways to share their talents with the Deerfield and greater Chicago community.

Juniors and seniors are selected for induction into the Salvador Dalí Chapter of Spanish Honor Society (Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica) based on outstanding academic achievement in Spanish. This year began with a beautiful induction ceremony in which every one of the one hundred and thirteen members took part by providing entertainment. The entertainment came in different forms; either a recitation of Spanish-language poetry, video productions, or performance of a skit, dance or song. They also helped to run the concession stand at a basketball game in order to raise funds. In December, they participated in the Phyllis Santullano Adopt-a-Family charity drive. Each of the six families that they adopted received food certificates as well as gifts purchased by the members. In April they hosted movie night, at which consisted of showing the Spanish movie "Butterfly", preceded by dinner catered by Chipotle. All junior and senior Spanish students were invited to attend. Small-group discussions took place following the movie. This was a great year for the Spanish Honor Society.

The Hebrew Honor Society, is similar to the French and Spanish Societies. They recognize the accomplishments of Hebrew students, their dedication to the Hebrew language and their commitment to learn Hebrew throughout high school and beyond. It is also a symbolic connection to other Hebrew speakers throughout the world, especially in Israel. They welcomed fourteen new members on November fifteenth with a special performance and induction ceremony. They sponsored a pizza sale in January and a Passover Bake Sale in April and the proceeds went to a charity of their choice. They meet about once every other month to plan events, to learn more about Israel, to speak a little Hebrew and to be together. They have a board of directors, which includes Alyssa Shaoul and Allison Zarem as Co-Presidents.

French Honor Society is an organization that recognizes academic excellence in French students. Eligible students are those in their fifth semester of high school French. The induction ceremony is celebrated with French songs, French skits, and French poetry. Throughout the year the students help earn money by selling concessions at basketball and football games. The French Honor Society also sponsors a needy family during the holiday season by providing them with gifts and food. Overall, the French Honor Society had a wonderful year.

At this year's Mr. DHS pageant the senior boys had the chance to strut their stuff for all of Deerfield High School. The Mr. DHS event is sponsored by GIMA, and it is a successful fundraising event for School Chest. Participants are selected through an audition process. Participants demonstrate their creativity, originality, personality, and talents. There are many laughs during the Mr. DHS show. This year the performances ranged from an imitation of the drill team dance to reciting a humorous poem about our experience at DHS. Some participants also displayed their musical ability by singing and playing instruments. All contestants are judged by DHS teachers and faculty. This event was one to be seen by all.

Deerfield High School Peer Helping is an organization where students learn communication and problem solving skills in order to help themselves and others. Peer Helpers began their year by helping transfer students transition into DHS. As the year progresses, they talk about peer issues and how to handle situations that arise with family and friends. Small groups often complete multiple service projects each year, such as making holiday cards for hospitals and retirement communities and donating stuffed animals and cans to community centers. The mission of Peer Helping is to empower students to assist others in the problem solving process by developing and utilizing their communication skills and enhancing their self awareness. Ultimately, Peer Helping's goal is to foster positive, empathic relationships that will improve our community.

Writing Club is not your average club. From haiku to novels: the members write both, and everything in between. Combining styles of other authors and combining them with their own, they create works that express emotion and insight. Through different perspectives and themes, they gain knowledge of what different writers were thinking and what it's like to live in someone else's shoes. At the same time, they know that it's not just about the writing, but what you learn along the way.

Like other clubs, the members sell pizza, and have weekly meetings on Wednesday after school. Writing Club stands for one thing: the creativity and styles of writing and all that it brings to the people that enjoy it.

"My favorite thing about Book Club is that the teachers, librarians, and students are all on the same level discussing books that really mean something in each of their lives. It's like deciding what your English class gets to read and talk about."
- Andrew Gaines

Book Club is a fairly new club at DHS that is composed of students and staff that just love to read. They read mystery, action, non-fiction, realistic fiction, and everything in-between! The students and staff, along with the librarians, read a book of their choice and then have a discussion on it. They have read books such as "The Kite Runner", "My Sister's Keeper" and many others. Book Club is open to everybody and anybody that likes to read and compare ideas with others.

"There are no words to express how it feels to watch the Spanish-speaking adults in the ESL classes progress week after week. The ESL classes have helped me with my Spanish, as well as have taught me valuable life lessons about participating in community service projects. Helping teach English to the Spanish-speaking community in Wheeling has become one of the most rewarding experiences of my life." - (Jr.) Jackie Gilford (President)

The Spanish Service Club was started this year by students interested in volunteering their services to Spanish speakers who are struggling to learn English. A liaison was formed with the Whitman School in Wheeling to help the school with their ESL (English as a Second Language) classes for adults and dance, art and cooking classes for children. Deerfield students travel to Whitman on Wednesday evenings in order to converse with language learners, teach lessons, work with the children and assist the Whitman teachers however necessary. The adults greatly appreciate having native English speakers to talk to, and the DHS students are doing a wonderful job teaching English as well as honing their own Spanish speaking skills. It has been a most rewarding and positive experience for everyone.

"Anime Club holds some of the most exciting experiences of my life. I will never forget the adventures I shared with my closest friends."
- Jennine Andrew

The members of Anime Club meet every Thursday and watch Japanese animation, which is most commonly called "anime". The members chose to watch the anime in Japanese with English subtitles to maintain the cultural meanings hidden within the story-line. They marvel at the artwork and become involved with the characters as the plot twists and turns about them. Afterwards, as shot discussion of what was learned, the cultural meanings, and what was admired in the story takes place. This year, members took a field trip to Antioch High School to interact with members of other clubs in a mini-convention that involved activities, prizes, and contests. Anime club welcomes any and all new members to indulge in a new experience.

Role-Playing Club is a group of young people interested in playing both board and role-playing games. They alternate between role-playing for games such as dungeons and Dragons, in campaigns they design themselves, and playing Magic: The gathering, a trading card game. While the gaming provides much of the environment, the people who make-up the club are equally important to its comfortable atmosphere.

Dance Company is a performing group at Deerfield High School which provides an opportunity for students to develop technical dance skills, and participate in dance performances and festivals. Throughout the season dancers have the opportunity to work with guest artists in master classes and workshops. This year Rachel Saltzman, Sarah Achler, and Christin Devcich auditioned their original choreography for the Illinois State Dance Festival. Dance Company performs at DHS in an annual spring dance concert which includes student choreography, staff choreography, and guest choreography. "Picture This", the 2007 Dance Company show, used visual art as a stimuli for the choreography.

"Jazz Band is fun for everyone! - Charlie Cohen

The Jazz Band meets every day before school, and is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors. A wide variety of jazz pieces are played throughout the year, enhanced by education in jazz history and theory. Each member of the band contributes ideas towards each piece that is played; students create a very positive environment that encourages musical development. Students in jazz band learn how to develop improvisational techniques and get experience playing many jazz standards.

Wind Ensemble is a very positive environment. The class meets every day for a full period and is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors. The band plays many different pieces spanning a wide range of musical styles, and they learn about these styles and various aspects of music history. Many different kinds of music are provided as listening tools in order to broaden the band's understanding of the world of music. The music is challenging but ultimately rewarding; it allows them to grow as musicians by developing healthy practice skills and performance techniques. Each member learns how to develop musical skills as well as knowledge of the musical world in each class period. The comfortable environment allows each member of the Wind Ensemble to feel like part of a team.

As usual, the Deerfield choirs consisting of Treble Ensemble, Concert Choir, Chorale, and Choraliers, performed a variety of songs that they had worked on. However, this year was even more special. In March, Chorale and Choraliers traveled to Italy. As they toured Rome, Sicily, Florence and even Vatican City to sing for the Pope, they performed what they had been looking forward to for almost a year. For Deerfield High School students to travel to Italy was truly special.

"STUNTS is a way for a community of theatre students, musically-inclined students, and the general population to come together and create a wildly entertaining production." - Rachel Plaster

Every year students at DHS come together to perform a variety show known as STUNTS. This year, the theme of the show was Me, Myself & Stunts. Among the entertainment provided, were humorous skits, musical theatre performances, and various bands, singers and dancers. Highlights of this year's show included skits that poked fun at the new homeroom situation, Facebook and the kick-off dance. All-in-all the night provided laughs for all. Who knew there was such talent at DHS?

Below: Stage Write prepares for their event. They discuss the upcoming performance for the school.

Above: Maggie Regein and Chris Schwartz discuss where each poem and story should go in the layout of the show.

Stage Write is an annual event that allows students to write and perform their own pieces of work. Each student gets the chance to write multiple stories or poems and then they get the chance to perform in front of the student body. Participants work on their pieces months in advance. Writing can be funny, meaningful, or based on true life stories. Whether you only participate once, or are a returning member each year, Stage Write gives students the opportunity to create a story and share it with their peers.

Fall Play

Sponsors: Susan Gorman and Helen Crowley

Rumors and Crucible hit off the year with plays that everyone seemed to enjoy. Below are highlights from the plays.

"Participating in the fall show this year truly was an unforgettable experience. The cast was like your family. You work with people who change your life and you have nothing, but fun."

~ Audrey Hayner

Rumors is a comedy about four couples who are arriving at the house of their closest friends, Charley and Myra. They all discover that Myra is missing, and Charley is passed out with a gunshot wound in his ear, no one knows what happened. Rumors start spreading about Myra and Charley and everybody else there. They use the night to try to figure out the truth about the rumors.

The Crucible is set in the small Puritan town of Salem, Massachusetts. The play begins with the discovery by the despised local preacher Reverend Parris that some local girls were performing a sinful dance in the woods. One of the girls, Parris's daughter, Betty, upon being discovered, falls into an unconscious state. Panic spreads through the village as people believe that witchcraft is afoot.

 THIS CARD MUST BE CARRIED IN THE INSURED MOTOR VEHICLE FOR PRODUCTION UPON DEMAND. THE COVERAGE PROVIDED BY THE POLICY MEETS THE MINIMUM LIABILITY LIMITS PRESCRIBED BY LAW.

IF YOU HAVE AN ACCIDENT - NOTIFY THE POLICE IMMEDIATELY

1. Write down names, addresses, telephone numbers, and license numbers of persons involved and of witnesses. Also write down the license plate number and date of expiration.
2. Do not admit fault. Do not discuss with anyone except your insurance agent.

EXAMINE POLICY EXCLUSIONS CAREFULLY. THIS FORM DOES NOT COVER ANY PART OF YOUR INSURANCE POLICY.

130-4180 HL-2

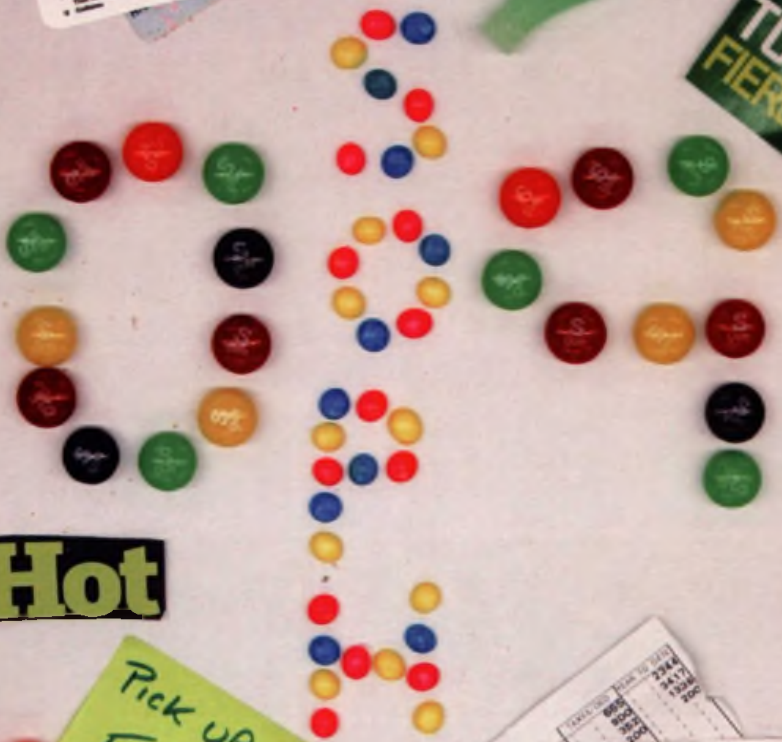

HOW DO I NOTIFY MY INSURANCE COVERAGE?

SEE POLICY FOR FULL NAME AND DEFINITION

1. Liability	2. Medical Payments	3. Personal Injury Protection	4. Uninsured Motor Vehicle
5. Collision	6. Comprehensive	7. Rental Car Expense	8. Loss of Use

We began this year in the ebbing wake of losing a friend who was our coach, our teacher, our colleague and most importantly our "teammate for life". Coach Pappas' influence on DHS became our inspiration for this yearbook in early September. In honor of our lost friend we wanted our theme to reflect his values for working together as a team. As with any successful team, we hoped our reflections would invoke meaningful memories for our readers that would last "for life".

This school year brought a terrible tragedy to our community that further magnified our intentions for this book and the theme of "for life". The accident that claimed the lives of our friends, reminded us of how precious life is. We fought despair and started to move forward, we came together. By taking one step at a time, we found a way to persevere and draw even closer together. We again bravely modeled what is to live the Deerfield way, and to live it "for life".
